ebm-papst again sponsoring Hockeyroo Emily Hurtz

ebm-papst is proud to continue to be a sponsor of aspiring Australian hockey star Emily Hurtz, daughter of former ebm-papst Account manager Garth Hurtz. Emily and her dad visited ebm-papst A&NZ head office in Melbourne recently as part of a flying visit from Amsterdam, where she currently plays, and Tasmania, where she took part in an Australian Hockey League tournament in preparation for next year's World Cup in the Netherlands.

Emily is very excited to be back in Australia, albeit for only three weeks. She hopes to be selected again to represent Australia, and to play the World Cup in the country that she has been living in for the last 16 months: "I can't wait for the world cup in the Hague next year." Emily has been member of the Australian Hockeyroos squad continuously since 2008, with a result of 26 goals in 66 games. Her current team, the Amsterdam Hockey and Bandy Club, has not only won last season, but is regarded as the world's best Hockey team.

ebm-papst A&NZ is convinced she will achieve her goals and wishes her all the best for her ongoing success in Hockey.
